Bible Thought for Today

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases. —Psalm 103:2-3.

We are inclined to take for granted the many blessings we have received.

ALMANAC

by United Press International Today is Saturday, Aug. 24, the 237th day of 1968 with 129 to follow.

The moon is between its new phase and first quarter.

The morning star is Venus. The evening star is Virgo.

On this day in history:

In 79 A.D., thousands of people were killed and the cities of Pompeii and Herculaneum were buried following the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in Italy.

In 1814, the British captured Washington, D. C., burning the Capitol and the White House.

In 1932, Amelia Earhart became the first woman to make a transcontinental non-stop flight.

In 1959, reports from Tibet told of 80,000 persons killed in a political revolt.

A thought for the day: British poet Robert Southwell said, "When fortune smiles, I smile to think how quickly she will frown."

Soybean Rate Of Support Is Announced

County price support rates for 1968-crop soybeans were announced by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Rates for the counties reflect the national average support price of $2.50 per bushel for 1968-crop soybeans announced January 26, 1968. This is the same as for the 1967 crop.

County rates are for No. 2 grade soybeans and are based on historical market price relationships throughout the soybean producing areas.

Some of the factors influencing market price relationships are the accessibility to crushing and export facilities, cost of transportation to market outlets and the existence of adequate storage which permits adjustments from the 1967 loan rates of mostly one cent per bushel were made in a number of counties due to shifts of economic relationships within the major producing areas of the country. Should farmers in areas for which historical data are not available desire price support, rates will be determined and announced.

Premiums and discounts are the same as for the 1967 crop. Loans are available through June 30, 1969, and will mature on July 31, 1969.

County rates are being sent to ASCS State offices where soybeans are produced, or they can be obtained from the Policy and Program Appraisal Division, ASCS, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. 20250.

HOT SEAT

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Zoo officials found out Wednesday why Jacob, a 260-pound gorilla, showed no romantic interest in a cagemate named Missy. Jacob has been rechristened Jacquelyn.

WEYMOUTH, England (UPI) — The plumber has uncrossed the pipes in Brian Ellis's new home, and it is now possible to get hot water without flushing the toilet — but Mrs. Ellis says "The neighbors keep asking us about our hot seat."

Dessert Shower Is Given In Honor Of Carolyn Cowin

Miss Elizabeth Carolyn Cowin, who was married to William Anthony Collura on August 21st, was the honoree at a delightfully planned dessert shower Tuesday evening at the Holiday Inn.

The gracious hostesses for this charming occasion were Mrs. James Armbruster, Mrs. Sam Knight, Mrs. Howard Koenen, and Mrs. Randolph Story. Miss Cowin chose to wear from her trousseau a pastel pink sleeveless crepe dress which featured a ruffled collar extending to a satin sash and bow and black patent accessories with her hostesses' gift corsage of white baby mums.

Mrs. Joseph Cowin, mother of the honoree, was attired in a sleeveless turquoise double-knit dress with beige accessories and a hostess' gift corsage of white carnations. The mother-in-law to be of the honoree, Mrs. Frank Collura, chose to wear a sleeveless burgundy and white linen dress with white accessories and her hostesses' gift corsage of white carnations.

The guests were directed to a couple of games by Mrs. Story. Miss Linda Harris and Mrs. John Fortin were the game winners, and they then presented their prizes of a pink towel and a delicate crystal bowl to the honoree.

Refreshments of homemade apple pie and coffee were served to the guests from a table overlaid with a white cloth, featuring an arrangement of large orange and yellow margolids interspersed with ferns and greenery in a milkglass vase.

Miss Cowin, assisted by Miss Sue Story and Mrs. Sammy Knight, sister of the honoree, opened her many nice gifts which had been placed on a large table overlaid with a white cloth. The hostesses presented the honoree with a large silver tray as their gift.

Included in the hospitality were forty-five friends of the bride-elect.

Letter Writer Is In The Wrong

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: While on a business trip several months ago, I met a very attractive married woman. (I am also married and have a family.) I admit I became quite involved with her. I won't say it was "love," but it was a very romantic encounter for both of us.

We've kept in touch thru letters and telephone, and I invited her to meet me again at my expense. I am not a rich man, but I own my own business, and can well afford it. Out of the blue I receive a letter from this woman's husband, telling me he'd found the letters I had written to his wife, and that she has confessed EVERYTHING. Now he demands that I write him a letter assuring him that I will never see his wife again. He also asks me to assure him in my letter that I will not leave my wife and family for her. (I never intended to).

I am at a loss as to how to handle this. I am definitely thru with his wife as I want no trouble. What is your advice?

DEAR WORRIED: Don't put anything in writing, but do consult your lawyer. He can tell you what to do and what not to do, which is even more important in this case. A man needs a lawyer to advise him of his rights — especially, when he's wrong.

DEAR ABBY: What can a woman of 42 do to get a compliment out of her husband? I have spent hours in the beauty parlor getting a new hair-do. No comment. I bought material and made myself a beautiful outfit in his favorite color—blue. No comment. I use cosmetics artistically and even searched for a subtle perfume I thought he'd like. No comment. Everyone else tells me I am a fine-looking woman, but he never says a word. I know he loves me and our children, but sometimes I think, "Oh, what the heck!"

NO COMPLIMENTS
DEAR NO: You're lucky.

New Officers Are Elected By First Baptist WMS

Mrs. Charles Hale and Mrs. Robert N. Scott of the Annie Armstrong Circle presented the program on "Unique Schoolrooms of the Indians of the United States" at the general meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church, held Tuesday morning at the church.

The group sang "Guide Me O, Thy Great Jehovah" led by Mrs. Howard Guthrie with Mrs. Scott at the piano. Mrs. Stanford Andrus announced that the week of prayer for state missions will be September 9-13. A study course for the new officers is planned for September 10.

Miss Nancy Bryan requested refreshments from the WMS during Freshman week at Murray State University.

The slate-of-officers for the new church year was read by Mrs. Jack Kennedy as follows: Mrs. Ray Moore, director; Mrs. Orville Anderson, assistant director; Mrs. O. C. Wells, WMS president; Mrs. R. A. Sinker, secretary; Mrs. R. W. Churchill, treasurer; Mrs. Hugh Noffsinger, study; Mrs. Edgar Shirley, activity; Mrs. Eugene Tarry, prayer.

WMS group leaders are Mesdames Noel Melugin, Howard Guthrie, Earl Warford, L. L. Dunn, Jesse Spencer, Neal C. Brown, and Miss Ruth Houston. Mrs. John Belt is YWA director.

Some women get plenty of sweet talk from their husbands, and nothing else. By the way, when was the last time you complimented HIM?

DEAR ABBY: This is for the woman whose husband had a good job, was "smart" but he evaded filling out forms because he could neither read nor write!

He could be a victim of a disability called "DYSLEXIA." This occurs in people of all intelligence levels, but more often in those of superior intelligence. For some unexplained reason it affects twice as many boys as girls. The most baffling part of the problem is that dyslexic readers have high I. Q.'s, show facility in math, have normal vision, and show no signs of brain damage and appear healthy in every other way.

Dyslexia can be detected by simple kindergarten tests, and if detected early the child can be helped with SPECIAL training, and no amount of ordinary tutoring will produce results.

Dyslexic readers see "saw" for "was" and "no" for "on"; they also confuse alphabetical look-alikes.

A team of Johns Hopkins medical scientists is presently tackling the problem. It is estimated that this disorder afflicts about half a million children in the United States.

Clever Couple Conquers Problems Of Inner Space

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN

FOUR walls aren't enough in a combination room when one is filled with kitchen cabinets and a second is taken over by windows. What's left? A small area for arranging furniture . . . and nothing to hang things on.

The problem, which was faced and solved by a new bride and her husband, both of them students at Purdue, is a common one in all parts of the country because the two-room apartment is a popular way to beat the high cost of housing.

But a two-room apartment—even one as nice as that occupied by Judy and Mark Merkel in a university-owned building—poses inner space problems as sticky as any tackled by NASA. There's just not enough room for privacy.

The Merkels apartment, reasonably priced at $57 a month with furniture and utilities included, is a bedroom, bath, and a combination living room-Pullman kitchen. While cherry, modern and well-equipped, it did not provide a retreat for study or recreational activity.

The Merkels decided what they needed was a wall—but structural changes weren't allowed so they solved their problem neatly with a portable one.

THE DIVIDER serves very necessary need in living area. It provides wall against which furniture can be arranged. Chest, which serves as a coffee table, was once a window seat.

WHEN THE MERKELS finish their studies and move on, the shelf unit they installed in kitchen can go with them.

Judy Merkel drew up the plan for it as part of a home management assignment (she's a senior in food-business at Purdue). Husband Mark did the carpentering.

The wall — pegboard mounted on spring poles—is a sturdy and attractive divider that provides show spots on both living room and kitchen sides for pictures and decorative hangings.

It gives the couple privacy. While Mark, a graduate student, studies on one side of the "wall," Judy can enjoy coffee with a friend on the other.

Pleased with their wall-making project, the Merkels surveyed their next new kitchen area and decided that a 3' x 6' open spot—Judy called it a disaster area—could be utilized for well-organized storage. But, again, the shelves they have built into the area are removable.

Like most couples, the Merkels have added their own touches to the furnished apartment. Judy's prize is a desk antiques in olive green that cost a cool $150 at a used furniture shop.

Another treasure is a plywood window seat with four large drawers for storage. It has been stained walnut and is used as a coffee table and/or a server.

The Merkels are enjoying their triumph over inner space. They like the idea, too, that the improvements they've added can be subtracted and taken with them when they finish their studies at Purdue and move on to larger quarters.

Miss Pamela Clark Honored At Bridal Luncheon Tuesday

A lovely bridal luncheon was held on Tuesday, August 20, at one o'clock in the afternoon in honor of Miss Pamela Clark, bride-elect of Edward M. West, Jr.

The gracious hostesses for the pre-nuptial occasion were Mrs. Hugh Houston, Mrs. James Rudy Albritton, Mrs. Earl Douglas, Mrs. Charles Shuffett, and Mrs. James C. Hart.

For the event the honoree chose to wear from her trousseau a green linen dress. Hostesses' gift corsages of white carnations were presented to Miss Clark, her mother, Mrs. Charles D. Clark, and her mother-in-law to be, Mrs. Edward M. West, Sr.

The hostesses presented the honoree with three pewter julep cups as a wedding gift. Beautiful arrangements of summer flowers were used at vantage points on the luncheon tables.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Virgie Clark, Mrs. Owen West, Mrs. Conrad Jones, Mrs. Woodfin Hutson, Mrs. Gingles Wallis, Mrs. Oren Hull, Mrs. Cal Luther, Mrs. William Smith, Mrs. Clifton Cochran, Miss Lynn Johnson, Mrs. Dick Johnson, Mrs. Howard Titworth, Miss Linda Arms, Mrs. Dan Hutson, Mrs. Charles Sexton, Miss Lillian Tate, Mrs. Max Carman, Mrs. Charles Tuttle, Mrs. Haron West, Mrs. Pete Hulise, Mrs. Alfred Lindsey, Mrs. Ben Trevathan, Mrs. John T. Ivan, Mrs. Louis C. Ryan, Mrs. Jim Ed Diuguid, the honoree, the mothers, and the hostesses.

Houseboat Party Held For Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hutson entertained with a party on their houseboat on Kentucky Lake on Thursday evening, August 22, to honor Miss Pamela Clark and Edward M. West, Jr., whose marriage is an event of August 24.

The honored couple was presented with a portable charcoal grill as a wedding gift from the Hutsons.

Dinner was served followed by swimming and was followed by a social hour. The hospitality was given by Jimmy Wilkins, Miss Loretta Underwood, Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. David Hale, Al Goodrich, Wayne Theis, Miss Linda Arms, the bride couple, and the hosts.
